33 Days to Greater Glory:
A Total Consecration to the Father Through
Jesus Based on the Gospel of John
By Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC

NEW Fr. Michael E. Gaitley, MIC, author of 33 Days to Morning Glory, one of the most popular Catholic books of the last decade, brings us his first new book in three years. 33 Days to Greater Glory completes a trilogy of consecrations: first to Mary, then to Jesus, the Divine Mercy, and now to God, our Father.

In this third installment of his 33-day consecration series, Fr. Gaitley has saved the best for last! 33 Days to Greater Glory stands as the culmination of a trilogy of consecrations that begins with the massively popular manual of Marian entrustment, 33 Days to Morning Glory. Second in the series is 33 Days to Merciful Love, because Mary always leads us to Jesus, the Divine Mercy. Finally, because Jesus wants to bring us home to the Father, we arrive at 33 Days to Greater Glory. And this really is a case of saving the best for last, because a consecration to our Heavenly Father truly is the greater consecration, the one in which all others find their origin and end.

TO OUR VALUED BOOKSELLER FRIENDS

As all of our lives continue to be disrupted by the COVID-19 pandemic, I want you to know how important booksellers — and the shops you operate — are to us.

Because of your dedication and tremendous support, we are able to spread the message of Divine Mercy and devotion to Mary to a nationwide audience.

It's because of you that books from authors Fr. Michael Gaitley, Fr. Donald Calloway, and myself are reaching vast numbers of souls and providing spiritual nourishment.

I hear stories every week from people who are comforted and enlightened by the books Marian Press publishes and we have you, our dedicated booksellers, to thank for providing a service to your communities. Please know that you are in my prayers and please keep us in yours. We will get through this together.

In the peace of Christ,

— Fr. Chris Alar, MIC

Consecration to St. Joseph:

The Wonders of Our Spiritual Father

By Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC

NEW Drawing on the wealth of the Church's living tradition, Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC, calls on all of us to turn to St. Joseph, entrust ourselves, our Church, and our world to our spiritual father's loving care, and then watch for wonders when the Universal Patron of the Church opens the floodgates of Heaven to pour out graces into our lives today. Definitely a book for our time, Consecration to St. Joseph is dedicated to meeting the challenges of the present moment and restoring order to our Church and our world, all through the potent paternal intercession and care of St. Joseph. This book has everything you need to take your love and devotion to St. Joseph to a whole different level: a thorough program of consecration to St. Joseph; information on the 10 wonders of St. Joseph; and prayers and devotions to St. Joseph.

Accessible, motivating, this book will kick off a great movement of consecration to our spiritual father and change the world.

After Suicide:

There's Hope for Them and for You

By Fr. Chris Alar, MIC, and Br. Jason Lewis, MIC

Do those who take their own lives automatically lose their salvation? How can we help those who have lost a loved one to suicide? In this Catholic best-seller, Fr. Chris Alar, MIC, addresses the hard issue of suicide simply and pastorally. With co-author Br. Jason Lewis, MIC, he draws from the teaching of the Church, the message of Divine Mercy, and their own experience of losing a loved one to offer readers two key forms of hope: hope for the salvation of those who've died by their own hand, and hope for the healing of those whom they've left behind. This book is a must-read for all those trying to make sense out of such a difficult subject. Remarkably, the spiritual principles of healing and redemption apply not only to a loss from suicide, but by any means of death.

Giorgio's Miracle

By Laurie Schmitt

NEW Meet young Giorgio. He's the son of a blacksmith, lives in Medieval Turin, Italy, and loves his pet donkey, Franca. Together they go charging around Giorgio's hometown, running errands, performing for his neighbors, and generally having a great time with his friends. But his father hasn't been the same since his mother's death, and Giorgio, his family, and the whole town of Turin could use a miracle. Then, one day, Franca runs away.

Giorgio prays for heavenly help — a prayer that's answered when the people of Turin have a miraculous encounter with the Eucharistic Lord. Perfect for fifth grade and up, Giorgio's Miracle is an entertaining tale of faith, family, and the merciful miracles of our loving God.

Heart's Relief

Annabelle of Anchony series: Book 2

By Ruth Apollonia

NEW In a country riven by rebellion, Annabelle of Anchony will soon find unlooked-for hope, heavenly assistance ... and great sorrow.

A world away from her island exile, Annabelle has found her loving family and home in Aboly, capital city of Anchony, at the royal palace. But all is still not well in Anchony, for the rebel Demolites hold Prince Phillipus of Sethel. All unknowing, the royal family of Sethel is on the way to Anchony, expecting to witness a marriage, only to discover that their prince is missing. Annabelle and her family must reckon with the consequences of years of Demolite plotting, betrayal, and violence against Anchonians of all classes. Will justice win out? Or will cruelty, greed, and lawlessness overcome Annabelle and all of Anchony?

Richly imagined, this exciting new entry in the Annabelle of Anchony series will inspire and move readers of all ages.

Annabelle of Anchony:

Burdens of the Mind

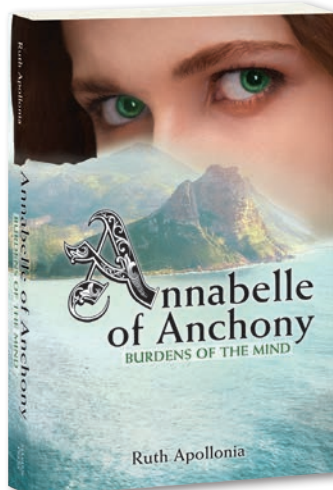

By Ruth Apollonia

A NOVEL A girl lost and alone. A nation at war. A hidden enemy circling ...

In Europe during the Middle Ages, Annabelle of Anchony finds herself trapped on an island, hunted by the vicious Demolites, and forced to trust a kindly stranger. As she grows up, sustained only by her Christian faith, she must find her family, her identity, and a path to peace in a kingdom torn by civil strife.

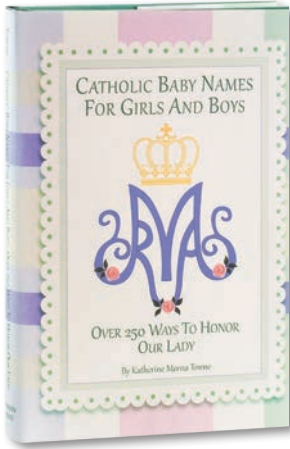

But even when she does come home, everything is not as it seems ... The exciting first chapter in a series of young adult fiction. Winner of the 2013 Catholic Arts and Letters Award.

Will You Come to Mass?

By Susan Joy Bellavance

This beautifully illustrated book inspires children and families to love and console Jesus by coming to Holy Mass. Young hearts will follow the little lamb into the arms of Jesus. In a simple but memorable way, it conveys the joy and graces that are available to all those who participate in the Holy Eucharist.

King of the Shattered Glass

By Susan Joy Bellavance

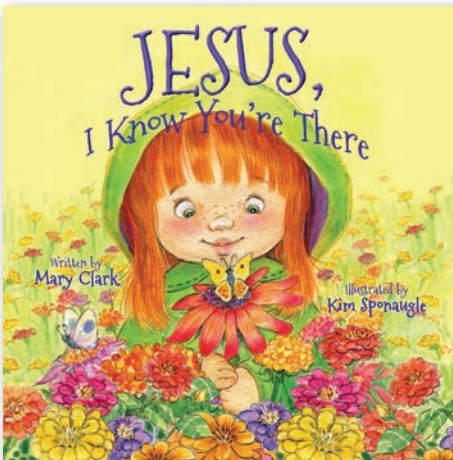

Beautifully illustrated for young elementary school readers, King of the Shattered Glass is a gentle parable about asking for forgiveness and receiving God's mercy!

Set in Medieval times, this is the story of orphan Marguerite, a scullery maid, who worked in the King's kitchen. When she repeatedly broke the King's precious glass, those around her told her to bury the glass, thus hiding the evidence. But, knowing what she must do, Marguerite brought the broken shards of glass to the King and explained how they broke.

This beautifully illustrated story shows how brave this young girl was, courageously approaching the King, knowing she might be punished. What she experienced, though, is what we all experience when we go to the Lord in Confession: His loving mercy!

Jesus, I Know You're There

By Mary Kay Clark

In Jesus, I Know You're There, beautifully rendered illustrations bring to life a luminous world for children to explore – a world made all the brighter by the presence of Jesus Christ, the Light of the World. Drawing on a traditional Catholic understanding of divine revelation, author Mary Kay Clark and illustrator Kim Sponaugle have created a welcoming introduction for children to all the ways that God transmits His love and mercy to us in our everyday lives. Encouraging and joyful, this book is a perfect gift for early readers in your life.
